

GENERAL INFORMATION

Schedule

Please note the schedule is different from previous years. This event is a Saturday-Thursday and not the typical Sunday-Friday. Cattle must be on the grounds by 8am Saturday, July 9th.

Health Requirements

A copy of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture Health Requirements can be found at <http://www.kyagr.com/statevet/import-bovine-exhibition.html>. You can also refer to page 3 of the NALJA News for Health Requirements. Please make sure you have your veterinarian issue the proper health papers in regard to Kentucky requirements. Be sure that you meet requirements for states that you will be traveling through as well. State officials have the right to request health papers at any time. Have your health papers in order and with the cattle.

FOR ALL EXHIBITORS IN KENTUCKY: Please note that 302 KAR 20:065, Section 2 (3) (c) states that 'Cattle or other bovine species infected with warts, ringworm, or any other communicable disease shall not be eligible for exhibition'.

A state vet trailer will be on the grounds near the Alltech Arena. You must check-in with them prior to entering the barn. If your cattle have visible signs of warts or ringworm they will not be able to enter the barn.

Check your Tattoos

Please check all tattoos prior to departing for Lexington. Cattle MUST have legible tattoos that correctly match the animal's registration certificate. Re-tattooing at the show WILL NOT BE ALLOWED. NO EXCEPTIONS!

Stalling & Arrival

Cattle may begin arriving on Thursday July 7th but can't enter the barns until Friday July 8th. Stalling will be located in the Alltech Arena. All junior cattle will be stalled by state. Please refer to NALJA Show Rules for complete stalling details. Cattle entered solely in the All American Limousin Futurity may not be stalled with junior show cattle. It's strongly encouraged to bring your own tie poles and kickboards.

Tie-Out & Bedding Material

Tie outs are available next to the Alltech Arena in a grass horse paddock. Please refer to enclosed map for locations. Tie outs will be bedded with mulch prior to your arrival. If you wish to bring your own pens, you will need to bring your own means to anchor them and provide your own bedding. Bedding inside the barn will be sawdust. There must be absolutely NO TRASH mixed with manure and bedding. Bedding fees will cover the first bedding in the barn and mulch for tie outs.

Parking Passes

Both prepaid and "pay at the gate" parking passes will be available at the gatehouse of the horse park upon arrival. If you choose not to purchase a $15.00 parking pass, there will be a $5.00 parking fee each time you re-enter the facility. If you've purchased a parking passes you'll be receiving them in the mail next week.

Trailer Parking

Trailers will be parked on asphalt, tying to trailers will not be allowed. The barn is air conditioned so port-a-coolers will not be needed.
