Herdsmanship Award
Throughout the week, a group of veteran showmen and women have roamed the barns and judged each state on its herdsmanship practices. States were judged on the display of their cattle, the cleanliness of their aisles and tack and the care of their cattle. States were broken into two categories based off of animals checked in with Large states having more than 11 head and small states having less.

The champion states in this year’s herdsmanship contest will receive priority stalling and check-in at the 2019 National Junior Show.

State Herdsmanship Large State: Colorado

State Herdsmanship Small State: Louisiana

Sweepstakes Competition
The sweepstakes competition is the most cumulative competition of the week. It factors in not only performance in the show ring but participation and performance in all the satellite events and activities throughout the week. Winners in this contest have been active and seen success throughout the week. The North American Limousin Junior Association would like to thank Ochsner Limousin for sponsoring this year’s sweepstakes competition. The State Sweepstakes winners were: Oklahoma, first; Texas, second; Colorado, third.

The Top Ten in the 2018 Sweepstakes Contest: Peyton Collum, Okla., first; Shelby Hubbard, Okla., second; Kinley Collum, Okla. third; Will Blaydes, Ky., fourth; Tucker Parkinson, Texas, fifth; Kylee Gaston, Texas, sixth; Wiley Fanta, Minn., seventh; McKenna Richardson, Kan., eighth; Colt Parkinson, Texas, ninth; Lana Sherry, Okla., tenth.
Limousin Beef Cook-Off
On Sunday, July 15, 2018, the Annual Limousin Beef Cook-Off took place for states to show off their impressive cooking abilities.
